

Why Institutional Governance?

- While UNGIWG is sponsoring and promoting the UNSDI initiative, it has no legal status to embark on activities that require transactions (receiving & disbursing funds, hiring of staff and services, etc.)
- Provide a framework to implement the UNSDI strategy
- Set-out rules for the engagement of partners (UN and non-UN)

Project Approach

- “Deconstruct UNSDI” into its key components
- Define deliverables/outputs that are precise, time bound and can be costed
- Involve stakeholders
- Measure progress over time
- Have a phase-out/ hand-over strategy

Comprehensive Management

A “deconstructed UNSDI project” requires a comprehensive and holistic management approach. The main body to ensure this will be the UNSDI Board and its subsidiaries, such as the “Technical Advisory Group (TAG)”

Partnership

UNSDI requires a framework for partners to be involved. The entry point for partners are the planning and implementation of UNSDI deliverables. Partners will be accredited by the UNSDI Board. Partners will have their “own Group” to engage with the Board on policy and strategic issues.

How UNSDI will be implemented

- Any single agency implements its SDI activities on its own/with its partners in line/ compliant with UNSDI.
- Multiple partners join forces and plan and implement (cross-agency) deliverables under the guidance/ supervision of the UNSDI Board.

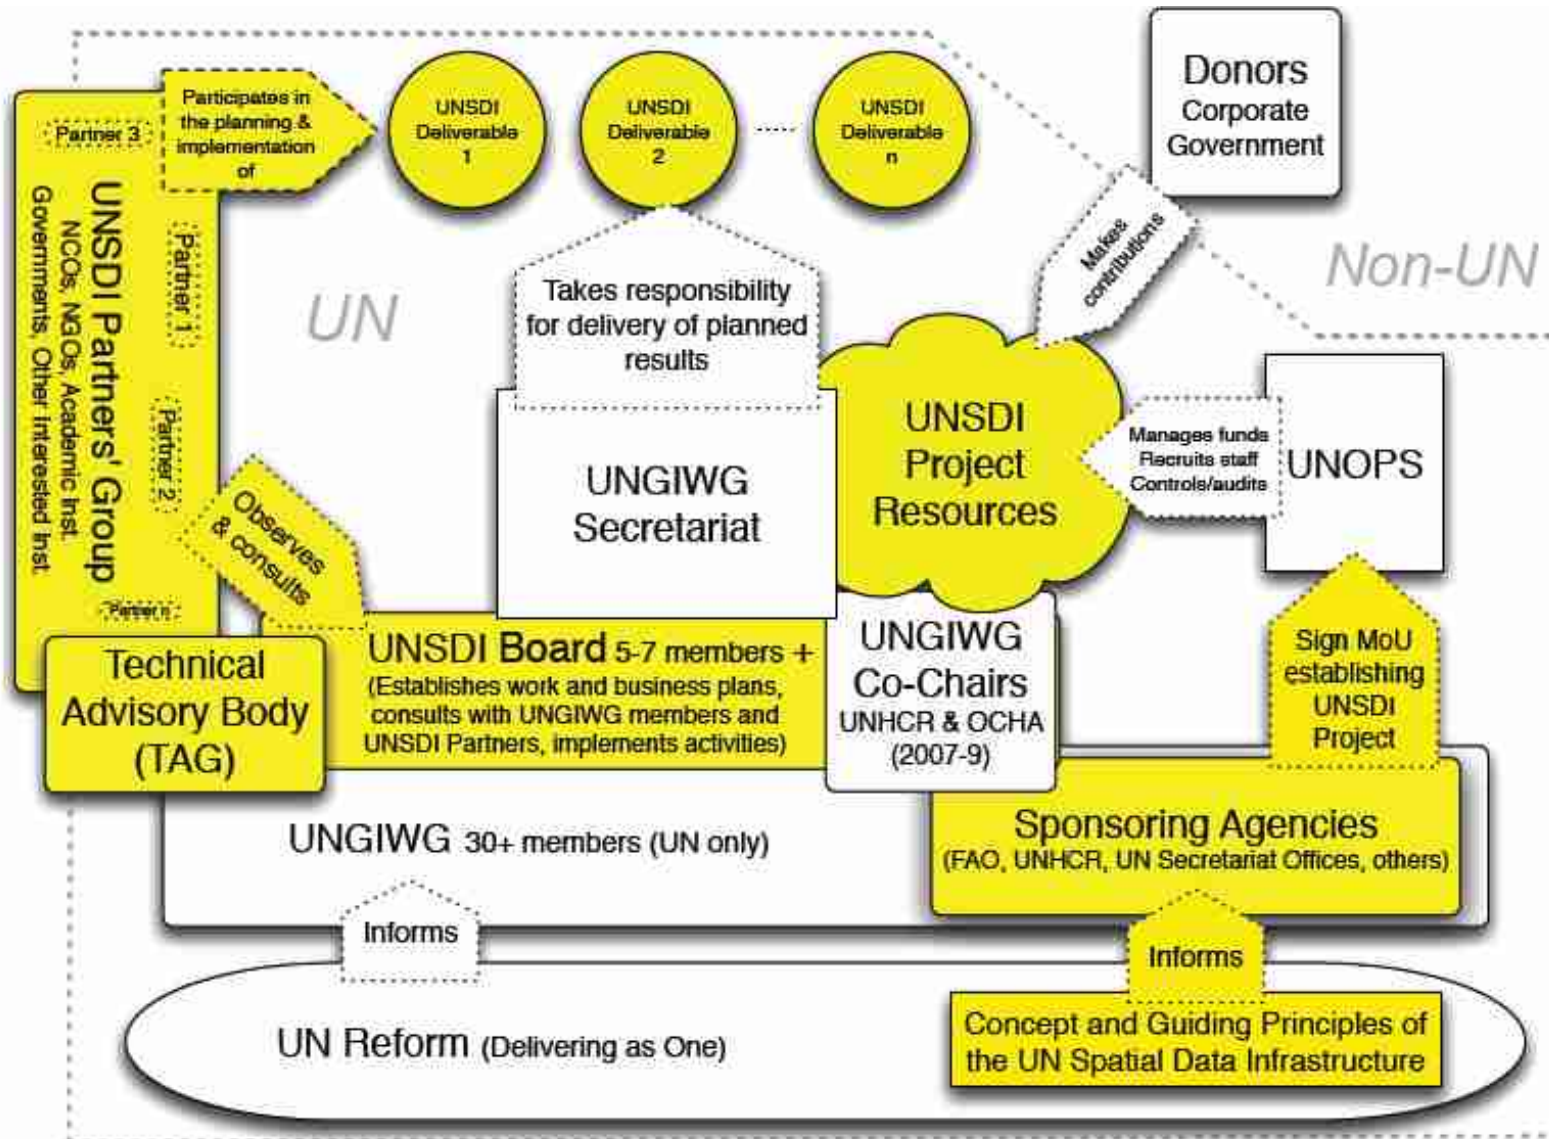

Project Execution Model

For inter/multi-agency deliverables:

Option 1: A UNGIWG member agency sets-up trust fund and administers project team (Examples: UNAIDS, UNJLC, etc.)

Option 2 : Engage Project Execution Agency (Examples: UNOSAT, UNHCR's contribution to the UNGIWG secretariat, etc.)
